

Press Release
November 13, 2008

Winnipeg: The Opticians Association of Canada (OAC) is pleased to announce the election of its new President, Mr. Robert Dalton. Mr. Dalton is a registered Optician in Nova Scotia and has previously served as President of the Nova Scotia Society of Dispensing Opticians. For the past several years he has been Nova Scotia's Director on the OAC Board and through much of that time has held the position of Vice President of the Opticians Association of Canada.

Dalie Schellen, OAC Director from Prince Edward Island, has been elected Vice President and Todd Smith OAC Director from Manitoba continues his term as Treasurer.

Past President Lorne Kashin will remain as advisor to the new President.